

Human Trafficking Victim Request Form.

As required by the Fair Credit Reporting Act, Spinwheel will block the reporting of any adverse information about a consumer that resulted from human trafficking if the consumer provides the necessary trafficking documentation. As a reseller, this means Spinwheel will prevent this adverse information from being included in any future consumer report resold by Spinwheel.

If you are or have been a victim of human trafficking, you can request Spinwheel to block adverse information resulting from human trafficking from your report.

To do so, please fill out and mail the following form identifying the adverse information and including the required supporting documentation (see below for details) to:

Spinwheel Solutions, Inc.
c/o Consumer Support
490 43rd Street, Suite 24
Oakland, CA 94609

Required Supporting Documentation.

1. Proof of identity, which may include copies of a government issued ID card, driver's license, passport, birth certificate, social security card, utility bill, or W2.
2. Victim Determination: A document that includes a determination that you were a victim of a form of human trafficking from:
 - A federal, state, tribal, or local governmental entity, government agency, or law enforcement entity; or
 - A self-attestation, which is a statement prepared by you (or your representative) stating that you were a victim of human trafficking, certified by an authorized employee or representative of a governmental agency or non-governmental entity; or
 - One or more documents from a court indicating a determination by a court that you were a victim of human trafficking in a case where a central issue is whether you are a victim of human trafficking. Court documents can be composed of several documents from the court case that together show that the court accepted as true or found no genuine dispute that you were a victim of human trafficking.
3. A completed Human Trafficking Victim Request Form.
